Dynamically inclusive companies and societies are key to sustainable development. As the pioneer of cultural expedition cruising, we welcome adventurers of every age, gender, orientation, nationality and interest to explore worldwide. We promote gender equity and women and girls' empowerment worldwide, and have strong internal policies that ensure our employees enjoy equal opportunities of employment and professional development, irrespective of gender, ethnicity, culture, religion, age, sexual orientation, functional ability and political view.

With our strong seafaring heritage, we are committed to the responsible use of marine resources for sustainable development. This is vital in promoting and conserving the health and biodiversity of the Earth's waters.

Legacies of the Land

We strive to preserve the natural and cultural landmarks that our expedition cruises explore, promoting and advancing the conservation, restoration and sustainable use of terrestrial ecosystems and historic sites for future generations.

Thriving Communities

We build strong connections with the communities that host our cultural expedition cruises, respecting their cultural and environmental integrity, while partnering with them to generate positive impacts.

Quality Education

Education and research empower human potential. Proud of our roots in British academia, we work to support regional research initiatives, ensuring access to inclusive and equitable education and providing lifelong learning opportunities for all.

Exploring with head and heart

Swan Hellenic pioneered cultural expedition cruising in 1954, when we accompanied members of the Hellenic Society around the famous sites of ancient Greece in the company of eminent classicists.

We don't just take you to explore the most extraordinary places on earth. We bring you the company of like-minded people and renowned experts, who offer eye-opening lectures and are on hand for informal questions and discussion throughout your cruise.

4pm

Indulge in our High Seas High Tea, or retreat to the comfort of your stateroom for a movie on your flatscreen TV. Sweat it out in our stunning panoramic sauna, take a dip in the pool, take a mindfulness class, or pop to the salon for a relaxing treatment.

6.30pm

Each evening a member of our expert team or a guest lecturer will talk you through the day's highlights. We will then discuss the shore excursion plans for the following day.

7pm

It's now time to enjoy the pleasures of elegant dining. Our chefs have prepared a selection of international culinary delights, expertly paired with wines selected by our sommelier.

Mediterranean Cultural Expedition Cruises

Swan Hellenic's first cultural cruise dropped anchor in the Mediterranean back in 1908. And over a century later, we are thrilled to be embracing the spirit of curiosity and discovery initiated by those first adventurers. Today our guests can explore the antiquity and beauty of this incredible region aboard our small yet stylish 5-star cultural cruise ship in the company of world-renowned regional specialists.

Visiting the smaller ports and lesser-explored countries of the Mediterranean allows us to create truly unique, unforgettable experiences across each of our expertly curated itineraries. Venture beyond the sunny beaches and sparkling seas and discover the landscapes and legends that have drawn civilisations to this part of the world for millennia.

Mediterranean Culture

Al Khazneh, Petra

Italy

The seat of the Roman Empire, Italy is renowned for its world-class food, fine wine, fashion and football. But delve beneath the surface and you'll find an abundance of unexpected wonders. From Trapani's biodiverse salt pans to the Valley of the Temples, an ancient architectural wonder, Italy is a treasure trove of cultural and natural marvels.

Cyprus

From neolithic settlements to the remains of once mighty kingdoms, sun-soaked Cyprus is home to some fascinating archaeology. Often referred to as the 'Island of Love', Aphrodite, the Greek goddess of love and beauty was once worshipped here. Today she can be honoured at the ruins of the Sanctuary of Aphrodite, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Greece

More than just a pretty face with its endless coastlines, white-washed buildings and balmy seas, Greece is the place where mythology and ancient history intertwine. Contemplate the seemingly impossible architecture of Athens's Parthenon, marvel at Delos Island's archaeology or follow in the footsteps of ancient pilgrims at the Temple of Artemis.

Tunisia

The Arab-speaking world's most liberal sovereignty, compact Tunisia punches well above its weight with its cultural offerings. Just outside of Tunis, the ancient city of Carthage was once the heart of the Phoenician trade network. Tunis's Bardo Museum houses the largest collection of Roman mosaics in the world. Here, the distant past is never far away.

Turkey

The meeting point of Europe and the Middle East, Turkey is richly historical and home to a striking diversity of cultures. Explore Greco-Roman Ephesus, the best-preserved ancient city in the Mediterranean, tour Istanbul's centuries-old Blue Mosque or indulge in Turkey's culinary history with meze and baklava accompanied by a glass of traditional çay.

Algeria

Since its Phoenician foundations in 900 BC, the Romans, Vandals, Byzantines, Muslims, Spanish, Ottomans and the French have all laid their claim on this land. The result is a magnificent blend of Islamic architecture, European-influenced culture, ancient fortresses and vast, perfectly preserved Roman sites.

Mediterranean Wonders

Church of Agios Nikolaos, Island of Lemnos, Greece

History

From the Phoenicians and Greeks to the Romans and the Ottomans, the shores of the Mediterranean have given birth to many of history's legendary civilisations. They have also witnessed epic battles and seen the rise and fall of powerful empires – all culminating in a fascinating past that has intrigued curious travellers for centuries.

Archaeology

The Mediterranean is the best open-air museum in the world, with archaeological sites that showcase its rich and complex history. From Malta's historical capital, Valletta and Algeria's perfectly preserved Roman towns, to Turkey's ancient city of Ephesus, exploring the archaeological gems of the Mediterranean will transport you back to antiquity and beyond.

Architecture

For over 3,500 years the architects of the Mediterranean competed in making their buildings more durable, more beautiful, and increasingly elaborate. The Parthenon in Athens and the Valley of Temples in Sicily are just a few of the incredible feats of ancient architecture that never fail to leave visitors in complete awe.

Landscape

Beautiful shorelines and shimmering blue waters are synonymous with the Mediterranean. And whilst it's true that you can find some of the world's most stunning beaches here, the rest of the region's varied and diverse landscapes also have much to offer. Pristine forests, coastal wetlands, semi-arid steppes and smouldering volcanoes all wait to be discovered.

Wildlife

Although the Mediterranean covers less than 1% of the world's ocean surface, it holds 1 in 10 of all known marine species, of which 28% are found nowhere else on earth. With the help of our onboard experts, we'll search for the many species of dolphins, whales, porpoises, sharks, turtles and more that call these abundant waters home.

Cuisine

Prepare your tastebuds for an epic culinary journey as you sample some of the world's most beloved dishes straight from the source. From Sicily's world-famous cannoli and traditional Greek moussaka to the spicy aromas of the North African tagine, tasting your way across the Mediterranean is a pleasure like no other.
